Application for anticipatory bail. The petitioner apprehends arrest on the allegation that he has committed non-bailable offences. The police had visited the premises of the petitioner and that prompted the petitioner to file this application.

2. The learned Public Prosecutor, after taking instructions, submits that no crime has been registered against the petitioner and the police have no intention to register any crime or to arrest the petitioner on any allegation of having committed non-bailable offences. It is true that the police went to the scene of the crime. That was only to verify certain information which was received. It is not necessary to arrest the petitioner, submits the learned Public Prosecutor. I take note of and hereby make record of the submissions made by the learned Public Prosecutor. In the light of the submissions of the learned Public Prosecutor, the apprehension of the petitioner is found to be without any basis.

2. This petition is accordingly dismissed as agreed.
